146	$20	Red wine; Domaine Mas Du Bouquet, Vacqueyras 2004. Aromas of red and black fruits, mineral, and Herbes de Provence prevail on the nose of this wine. On the palate, it is full-bodied and generous with dried cherry fruit, herb, anise, and spice flavors. A surprisingly complex wine with a good finish on smooth tannins. Serve with lamb, grilled meats, poultry, or soft white cheeses. It drinks well now, but can develop if cellared until 2010.		$15
